

Researching, Teaching, and Exhibiting Refugeeedom in Central and Eastern Europe

POLIN Museum Warsaw

WEDNESDAY: 11 December 2019

Time	Content	Speakers
Introduction
9:00	Welcome	Anne von Oswald, Miriam Schulz (We Refugees)
	Presentation of “We Refugees”
	Presentation of “Unlikely Refuge?”	Michal Frankl (Unlikely Refuge?)
	Central Question: “How can ‘We Refugees’ be implemented in education about refugeeedom?”
Coffee Break
Visit to POLIN Museum
11:00	Visit to the POLIN Museum core exhibition with a focus on the history of Polish Jewish (forced) migration
13:00	Lunch
Workshop I: Support Structures in Refuge Cities Then and Now – Research and Practice
14:30-15:30	Support Networks for Jewish Refugees in Eastern Polish Towns	Lidia Zessin-Jurek (Unlikely Refuge?)
	Refugees in Warsaw Today – Support, Empowerment and Education	Kalina Czwarnóg, Feras Daboul (Fundacja Ocalenie)
15:30	Coffee Break
Workshop II: Exhibiting and Teaching Refugee Narratives
16:00-18:30	Education Projects with Refugees at POLIN Museum	Małgorzata Waszczuk (POLIN Museum)

Stories of Refugees and their Supporters Across Time in the Online Projects of POLIN Museum

Klara Jackl
(POLIN Museum)

Teaching and Exhibiting Historical Refugee Narratives Today

Alicja Wancercz-
Gluza (KARTA)

18:30 Get-together and dinner
