

Who wants whom to remember what, and why?

Insights from the Practice of European Holocaust Education: Experiences in Italy and Europe

European Workshop on Multiperspective Approaches in Holocaust Education and Remembrance

Rome, 25th- 27th October 2023

Location: Centro Bibliografico Tullia Zevi – UCEI (Unione delle comunità ebraiche italiane)

The main focus of the workshop will be on Holocaust education and remembrance in Italy, particularly highlighting the involvement of Jewish organizations in this field. Using this as a foundation, we will explore and examine the educational approaches presented by our European partners. Through this hands-on exploration, participants will gain valuable insights into the educational initiatives undertaken by different institutions. Engaging in meaningful discussions, we will have the opportunity to delve further into the topics covered in the presentations and reflect on how these perspectives can be effectively integrated into our own educational practices. We will take the quote of Peter Burke's quote:

"It is important to ask the question, who wants whom to remember what, and why? Whose version of the past is recorded and preserved...?" (Collective Memory, 2012)

The workshop is part of the project „Multi-Perspective Holocaust Remembrance in Contemporary Europe“ (short: MuRem). The goal is to build a network and strengthen multiperspectivity and interdisciplinarity in European Holocaust Education by taking into account the diversity of memory cultures and their consequences for the present.
